'Rooted in Reading'

'Rooted in Reading' is a reading promotion project offering primary and secondary school students a suite of 12 reading 'passports' to encourage reading for pleasure. The passports encourage the reading of a variety of text types and aim to expand the reader's literary and non-literary experience.

Delivered by:

Steve Willshaw

Senior Lead for English with Priory Fed; @lincstsa and @LtsaSCITT;
Nat Bacc Trustee; TIFF provider, PP Reviewer.

Steve Willshaw has been an English teacher for 25 years, starting his career in Tower Hamlets and going on to be a head of English in comprehensive schools in Nottinghamshire and Lincolnshire, Senior School Improvement Consultant before taking up his current post of Senior Lead in English at the Priory Federation of Academies Trust. He is also the author of a study guide on The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes for the National Association for the Teaching of English (NATE) and has written schemes of work and notes for several Longman texts as well as advising on their series Literacy through Texts. He is an accredited LCI (Local Consultant for Improvement) and was the head of English for www.schoolsnet.com. Steve developed and wrote the 'Rooted in Reading' passports based on his experience of teaching English.

About:

Instagram - to promote your library

Aimee Perry: Librarian, Baines High School

Many of us will recall Aimee who works with Anne Woodworth at Baines High School. Aimee is soon to leave the profession to pursue a full time career as a teacher of Dance and so we thought we would 'catch' Aimee and ask her to share her pioneering work using Instagram to promote the library before she leaves.
